Smile and Move: Go Beyond Expectations

Going beyond expectations is where wonderful starts.

Going beyond expectations for others (at work, in our communities, on the field) is how a civil rights movement succeeds; how our newest and latest favorite products are created (and get better before we even ask); how an inspiring comeback happens.

And we need to remember, sometimes it's the small things that can have the biggest impact on results (Parker, 2014).

Thank you for all you do going beyond expectations with your sons and daughters. We hope to exceed your expectations here at school each day.
